

Rudolf's Gold, dir. Janis Streics, 114', 35mm, 2010

The old soldier of the Kaiser Roudup, with his wealth and pride, being a thorn in the baron's flesh, becomes truly uncontrollable when he gets hit by the Cupid's arrow. For a simple maid Emily the old boy is willing to do anything. But the girl loves his godson Kārlis. It all involves both riches and lawlessness of the baron and cheaters.

Dangerous Summer, dir. Aigars Grauba, 110', 35mm, 2000

1940 - the year of terror in Europe when the independent Latvian nation is also occupied. Love between a Prussian girl and a Latvian radio journalist and its confrontation with the atrocities of World War II politics. A dangerous game leaving an impact on nations and their leaders, the people and their lives. A game where no one ever wins.

Lotte and Moonstone Secret, dir. anno Poldma, Heiki Ernits, 75', 35mm, 2011

Several young fellows wind up on trial after smashing a train carriage as they are returning from the rock concert, others become examples of "punks" who view Soviet reality as "upside down". A sixteen-year-old girl accused of stealing tries to commit suicide by jumping out a window in a police station. A young man becomes an amateur filmmaker making a Kafkaesque avant-garde film, while another youth becomes a follower of the Hare Krishnas.

The Golden Horse, dir. Valentas Askinis, Signe Baumane, 75', 35mm, 2012

On his way to glass mountain Antis meets White Father, a sworn enemy of Black Mother. It seems an impossible mission as the struggle involves fighting against Antis' greedy and nasty brothers, conniving Cruel Prince and evil Black Mother herself. The open-hearted and brave Antis is not discouraged and through hardship and various tests reaches his goal - saves beautiful Princess from powers of Black Mother.

The Book of Dreams, dir. Janis Skulme, 90', 35mm, 2012 (pre-production)

A neurotic decides to reform his life that unexpectedly is thrown back into unbalance when he finds a book loaded with conspiracies. Between dodging deliriums and retaining his sanity, he struggles to expose the crimes only to discover that he himself is part of the plan.

Apple Pie Lullaby, dir. Reinis Kalnaellis, 85', 35mm, 2014 (in-development)

The Little Mouse dreams about growing bigger to become a real hero. Soon a chance comes to visit a city of penguins and to discover how big the Little Mouse already is. Will she find her penguin friend again? Can this meeting be dangerous to the whole world? We will discover that, while the Cat is waiting the Little Mouse home, always ready to stretch a helping paw.

